MODULE DESCRIPTOR

Module Title

Studio Practice: Core Skills - Identifying Focus

Reference	AA2701	Version	3
Created	June 2017	SCQF Level	SCQF 8
Approved	August 2012	SCQF Points	45
Amended	August 2017	ECTS Points	22.5

Aims of Module

To enable the student to develop and apply a range of core skills within Contemporary Art Practice through either Moving Image, Printmaking, Photography, or Sculpture or any combination of these through informed experience.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Undertake and apply research using methodologies appropriate to the context of Contemporary Art Practice.
- 2 Demonstrate the ability to engage in the inventive and imaginative generation, exploration and development of ideas (in response to a given brief) through the media of Contemporary Art Practice.
- 3 Demonstrate a practical working knowledge of materials, processes and technologies (including core IT skills) central to Contemporary Art Practice.
- 4 Demonstrate an ability to resolve work through clarity of intention and the articulation of ideas.
- 5 Exercise autonomy, participation and commitment in both self-directed and directed studio projects.

Indicative Module Content

This module introduces the student to a range of fundamental skills and techniques central to the subject of Contemporary Art Practice explored through the four principal areas of Contemporary Art Practice: Moving Image, Printmaking, Photography, or Sculpture. These are explored through a series of studio and workshop based projects. Throughout the projects, students are encouraged to develop an individual approach to their practice, framed by a critical understanding of current theories and historical accounts of creative visual art and as supported by Critical and Contextual Studies Module.

Module Delivery

The module is delivered through studio and workshop projects, complemented by lectures, seminars and demonstrations and supported by materials on CampusMoodle. There is both individual and group tutorial support. Peer interaction is facilitated informally within the studio environment and formally through scheduled studio critiques. Optional study trips to local, national and international venues are available. Students are expected to be proactive in visiting relevant exhibitions and events relative to individual interests and concerns.
