Amended	August 2017	ECTS Points	15

Aims of Module

None.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Perform, demonstrate and explain a range of appropriate workplace skills and tasks, taking account of practical and managerial criteria for performance.
- 2 Critically review and assess practices and procedures encountered in working environments.
- 3 Demonstrate effective self-evaluation via the production of a personal development plan

Indicative Module Content

In this module students engage in a period of fieldwork in the hospitality sector. Students experience the practicalities and challenges of relevant workplace situations and develop evaluative and reflective practitioner skills and attitudes. Students will reflect on their professional and academic growth and develop a structured personal development plan for future sessions.

Module Delivery

Students will undertake a period of fieldwork focussing on the development of basic operational skills. Students will receive pre-placement briefings and support from academic staff and a post-placement de-brief. Whilst on placement, students will have access to a range of online materials highlighting the practicalities of working in the sector to further enhance their understanding of the industry.
