Created	January 2017	SCQF Level	SCQF 10
Approved	June 2017	SCQF Points	30
Amended	June 2017	ECTS Points	15

Aims of Module

To provide students with the opportunity to undertake a piece of supervised, independent in-depth research into a specific area or issue of legal interest and to apply the full range of associated research skills required to produce a dissertation. To demonstrate skills of analysis, critical evaluation, reflection, logical argument and communication.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Demonstrate rigour in the analysis of information from primary and/or secondary sources and in the synthesis and interpretation of concepts and legal issues.
- 2 Plan and write a dissertation which demonstrates a logical consistency in approach and structure, and critical evaluation of theory, process, and outcomes.

Indicative Module Content

The semester will involve a taught element concentrating on legal research skills and methodology. Beyond this, the student will work independently but under supervision to prepare a dissertation on an approved topic of their choice. The content is developed dialectically between the student and the supervisor.

Module Delivery

Lectures / workshops over the course of first semester supplemented by a dissertation supervisor who will provide guidance on the academic and practical aspects of topic selection and literature review, as appropriate. The supervisor will not advise on the specific content of the dissertation.
