Created	April 2022	SCQF Level	SCQF 8
Approved	June 2018	SCQF Points	15
Amended	April 2024	ECTS Points	7.5

Aims of Module

To provide the student with an ability to appraise the theories and related processes associated with the development of tourism destinations.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Explain theoretical concepts related to tourism destination development.
- 2 Explain the rationale for developing tourism to a particular receiving destination.
- 3 Discuss the challenges associated with securing sustainable tourism development
- 4 Identify trends for the future development of tourism destinations.

Indicative Module Content

The rationale for tourism developments from local, national and international perspectives. The role of stakeholders. The benefits associated with tourism development and the negative impacts that can arise. Identifying concepts, trends and best practice that can inform future sustainable development of tourist destinations. Students will engage with UNESCO's Education for Sustainable Development Anticipatory, Strategic, Critical thinking Normative and Integrated problem solving competencies as they consider future tourism development; investigate positive and negative impacts and consider the implications of these; address the challenge of implementing policies and practices that drive sustainability - in a context of competing and conflicting stakeholder requirements. This module will provide opportunity to engage with UNSDGs 8, 9, 11 and 12

Module Delivery

This module focuses on the development of tourism destinations by integrating theory with the study of a range of local and international case studies. Core concepts related to economic development and sustainability will be delivered in lecture and student-centred tutorials. Students will investigate case study destinations to apply theoretical concepts, identify best practice and opportunities for enhancing future sustainable development.
