Aims of Module

To provide students with the ability to apply their design and features writing skills in the production of a magazine edition.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Produce editorial copy and images (photography and illustrations) for magazine publication.
- 2 Fulfil defined editorial and production roles within the magazine team.
- 3 Participate in a structured group task to produce a magazine and evaluate individual contributions to the group effort.
- 4 Develop their understanding of production, design and creation of a fully formed magazine title that identifies and justifies a target audience for the magazine.

Indicative Module Content

The module aims to produce a magazine edition covering a theme which reflects a target market and audience within this market. Students will be required to produce editorial material (features, articles, photographs, graphics) to provide material for the magazine. Students will be assigned to defined editorial and production roles within the team, each with a job specification designed to contribute to the aim of producing a magazine edition by writing, editing and designing material for publication and distribution.

Module Delivery

This module is a combination of lectures, workshops and group activity. Students will be split into team groups and assigned roles with responsibility for the production of written, edited and designed material for a magazine edition which is stimulating, informative and well-produced.
