Created	September 2023	SCQF Level	SCQF 10
Approved	April 2019	SCQF Points	30
Amended	April 2024	ECTS Points	15

Aims of Module

To provide the student with an opportunity to evidence their personal development, and critically reflect on the impact of their placement year on their own progress and future employability.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Illustrate the ability to reflect on existing abilities and knowledge.
- 2 Communicate the technical skills required by the computing industry.
- 3 Critique the soft skills required for success in a modern workplace or study abroad.
- 4 Compose measurable and actionable plans to achieve objectives appropriate to placement or study abroad.
- 5 Critique own performance against defined objectives.

Indicative Module Content

This module runs in conjunction with relevant placement modules (CM4305, CM4306, CM4307, CM4308, CM4309, CM4310) and is intended as a vehicle for students to evidence how their placement has helped them develop both academically and professionally. Content will be provided through an online learning environment with examples of personal development planning, and aspects of reflective writing.

Module Delivery

The module content will be made available to the students during their placement period via the Moodle VLE.
