Amended	August 2021	ECTS Points	7.5

Aims of Module

1. To develop understanding of, and the ability to apply, practical legal skills in areas such as communication, negotiation, client interviewing and counselling, and dispute resolution.
2. To deepen student knowledge and appreciation of the nature of law and of key legal concepts, such as rights and justice, and their operation in practice.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Apply key document drafting skills pertinent to legal practice.
- 2 Explain, and demonstrate a critical understanding of, the nature of law and of legal concepts including legal obligation, rights, and justice.
- 3 Demonstrate a practical knowledge of sound client interviewing and negotiating techniques.
- 4 Appraise the range of dispute resolution methods available.

Indicative Module Content

One part of the module will develop key practical transferrable skills required in the workplace such as drafting, client interviewing and counselling, negotiation, and the selection of appropriate dispute resolution alternatives. The other part of the module will explore major legal concepts such as legal obligation, rights, and the idea of justice.

Module Delivery

This is a lecture and tutorial based module. Lectures provide core module content. Tutorials develop associated higher level skills through student centred learning. In addition, online activities will form part of the module contact time.
