Aims of Module

The aim of this module is to provide a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of research, policy and practice on managing diversity and inclusion in organisations.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Review and appraise academic literature on the experience and management of diversity and inclusion in organisations.
- 2 Analyse occupational segregation and the inequalities that individuals and/or groups can face at work.
- 3 Apply relevant diversity and inclusion concepts, theories and models to organisational contexts.
- 4 Explain legislative principles underpinning contemporary approaches to managing diversity and inclusion.
- 5 Evaluate organisational diversity inclusion policy and practices.

Indicative Module Content

Managing diversity; occupational segregation; anti-discrimination legislation; categorisations and intersectionality; implementation.

Module Delivery

This module is delivered for on campus students via a series of interactive live lectures and tutorials in addition to pre-recorded content. The live sessions are student-led and often require group work to analyse case studies. Students are also required to undertake directed and independent self-study. Online students will have access to a range of materials and tools to facilitate their learning including topic guides, recorded lectures, online tutorials, exercises, group-work areas and discussion forums. In addition to the sessions with a tutor, online quizzes and knowledge checkers may be used to assist online learners to benchmark their knowledge as they go. External speakers may also be used to further contextualise the module content.
