Aims of Module

The module aims to help paralegal manage professional risk environment and issues of ethics, conduct and the regulatory constraints around paralegal practice.

Learning Outcomes for Module

On completion of this module, students are expected to be able to:

- 1 Recognise the specific ethical issues and requirements on paralegals
- 2 Outline the general regulatory environment as it impacts on paralegals
- 3 Describe the ethical and regulatory environment for the legal profession as a whole

Indicative Module Content

The module provides an overview of the ethical and regulatory requirements of the overall legal profession, and any analogous roles and places the paralegal within that. It also covers the overall regulatory environment for paralegals and includes topics such as (1) Ethics in paralegal practice (2) (3) the regulatory requirements of paralegal practice (4) information integrity (5) equality and diversity and (6) governance in practice

Module Delivery

Materials will be delivered in the University's online learning environment. Formative activities such as forum postings and online quizzes will help prompt learning reflection as a foundation for discussion in online live tutorials. Students will be encouraged to engage with how the materials being taught are evidence and embedded in their work based practice and this will be discussed and captured in the ways outlined above, and through the assessment. These materials will be supplemented by Law Society supported materials where appropriate.
